My dear Mr. Walford

From personal respect and regard, arising from very long acquaintance, I would comply with your request, if I could by any means prevail upon myself to sit again for my old photograph. I did so once, but I made up my mind that I never would do it again, and I must keep my resolution.

You can spare
my grey hair & wrinkles the better, because I do not (I am happy to say) see my name in any of the lists for your four volumes.

I am glad to see that you are getting on so well with your various undertakings.

Yours most sincerely
J. Payne Collier

The Rev^d
Edward Walford.
